Ambitions and Challenges of High Speed Transport

Auditorium of DG Enterprise and Industry, Breydel building, Avenue d'Auderghem 45, Brussels, Belgium

The Consortium of the HIKARI project is delighted to announce that the 2nd HIKARI Open Workshop on the topic of High Speed Transport (HST) will be held on September 24-25, 2014 in Brussels, Belgium in the premises of the European Commission.

The Project

HIKARI, or "light" in Japanese, aims at pursuing and bringing one step further cooperation between Europe and Japan in the field of high speed transport, so as to be a real and feasible scenario of our future's daily life, allowing us, for example... to fly from Paris to Tokyo in less than three hours!

The Purpose

In the frame of the HIKARI project this two-day event primarily aims to present and discuss the technical ambitions and challenges of HST derived within the HIKARI project and to establish and promote comprehensive roadmaps for technology development and demonstration strategies for future high-speed aviation.

Preliminary Agenda

Session 1	Wed 09/24 15:00-19:00	Technical Ambitions and Challenges of High Speed Transport
Session 2	Thu 09/25 09:00-12:00	Policy and Partnerships : How to reach High Speed Transport

Further information / Confirming registrations

Due to the limited capacity of the workshop, pre-registration and confirmation is required. To participate and attend Session 1, Session 2 or both, kindly send your interest and contact details to info@hikari-project.eu. Confirmations will be sent on a first-come-first-served basis.

This project has received funding from the European Union's Seventh Framework Programme for research, technological development and demonstration under grant agreement no. 313987, the METI (Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry) and other concerned Japanese authorities.
